

Certificate of Authenticity

Item: Original 13-Star "Betsy Ross" American Flag

Circa: 1780

Provenance: Private family collection, Pennsylvania

This document certifies that the 13-star American flag described above is an authentic historical artifact, believed to have been hand-sewn and flown on a private family farm during the American Revolutionary era, circa 1780. The flag conforms to the design commonly attributed to Betsy Ross, featuring thirteen stars arranged in a circle representing the original colonies.

This artifact has been visually inspected, and its materials, stitching, and pattern are consistent with flags produced in the late 18th century. Accompanying documentation and family records support its lineage and historical significance.

Flag Dimensions: 28" x 45"

Materials: Wool bunting and hand-sewn linen stars

Stitching: Hand-sewn with period-correct thread
